TWO BROTHERS (Presented by our lecturer at our August Meeting)

There was once a man who had two sons. He did everything he could for them, helped them both as they needed it, and did his best to raise them both to be good men. Twenty years after his first wife passed away, he remarried. The man's oldest son was happy for his father's newfound joy. He called his new stepmother "mom" and brought her flowers every Mother's Day. As he had done for years, the oldest son drove an hour each way every Sunday afternoon to visit, staying for hours to watch football games, have dinner, and to just be with his father and new stepmother. The oldest son would drop everything in his life at a moment's notice whenever his father or stepmother needed the smallest thing.

The man's youngest son lived a different life. He resented the fact that his father remarried, and while polite to his stepmother he never truly welcomed her into his heart, or his life. As he had done for years, the youngest son — who only lived five minutes from his father and stepmother — drove by twice a day on his way to and from the gym, yet he never stopped in. He called his father once or twice a month, and most of the time talked about himself and what he was doing in his life. While he honored his aging father's requests for help now and then, it was obvious when you looked in his eyes that he helped his dad out of obligation, not out of love.

This story sounds like one of Jesus' parables, and is very reminiscent of the Parable of the Two Sons. But this is no parable; this is a true story of two very real brothers. Yet like the parables, there is a lesson to be learned here, especially when we read from Isaiah 29 where the Lord says: "this people draws near with words only and honors me with their lips alone, though their hearts are far from me, and fear of me has become mere precept of human teaching."

How many times do we honor our parents with our lips alone, doing what they ask only because it's the right thing to do, not because we have joy in our hearts to help them? How often do we roll our eyes in frustration when our parents' requests interfere with the flow of our own lives? When our parents need us most, do we decide if we're going to help them and how much we're going to help them based upon how much it interrupts our lives and our plans? It's not easy to be honest with ourselves and answer those questions. For most people, we're somewhat of a mix of both brothers. We all want to be the older son, but more often than we like to admit, we wind up like the younger.

In our own selfishness, we prioritize our time and our plans. What we want to do becomes so much more important in our minds than what our parents need from us. Or we choose what is easy for us instead of what is the right and righteous thing to do.

Maybe we choose playing golf over an afternoon sitting with them in the doctor's office, because today might be the last nice day to get 18 holes in before winter gets here. Maybe we choose happy hour with the guys from work instead of helping with grocery shopping because there's a corporate ladder that we want to climb. Or maybe we choose to drive two hours to the game instead of driving them to Mass because we got really good tickets and we wouldn't want them to go to waste.

Whatever our excuses, they are just that: excuses. And too often our relationship with our parents here on earth mirror the relationship we have with our Heavenly Father and our Blessed Mother. How many times in Mass do we honor God the Father with our lips alone, while our minds and hearts are elsewhere? How often do we go through the motions of being a good Catholic out of obligation to our Heavenly Father rather than out of love for Him? Do we love the Mother of Christ so much that we can call her our "Blessed Mother" or do we just call her "Mary"? How many times a day do we drive past the Blessed Sacrament here in our own Adoration Chapel, and never even bother to turn down the radio, let alone stop in and spend five minutes with our Lord?

God wants us all to be like the oldest son. He wants us all to open our hearts, to serve both Him and our earthly parents out of love, not out of obligation. Loving and serving our parents so selflessly isn't always easy. Being a good son isn't always easy. Sometimes we have to do things that we really don't want to do. Just ask Jesus. But we all know the son our God-formed heart yearns to be. May we each find the strength and courage to live it.

Mike LaMorte, Lecturer

FROM THE PRINCIPAL OF ST. MICHAEL SCHOOL

Dear St. Michael Knights,

I would like to take a moment to express my ongoing gratitude for your presence in our community and for the many ways you build up God's kingdom in our parish and school. I am particularly grateful for the scholarship support you provided this past school year for a St. Michael graduate. Your witness of fraternal charity, especially in the recent honor you extended to Fr. Acuri was deeply appreciated by all who were privileged to be present on that graced occasion.

Please know the vast extent of your apostolic work among our community does not go unnoticed, if even it is often accompanied by your humble or hidden service. It is known how quickly our Knights mobilize in small and great ways for so many in need in our parish, including your ready offers of help to the Sisters. May God reward you.

Our prayers are with you, and I pray that many of our young people will be inspired by your example and virtues and come to imitate them.

God bless you,

Sr. John Paul, O.P., Principal, St. Michael School

HAVE YOU LOOKED AT HOW KofC INSURANCE CAN FULFILL YOUR NEEDS

At some in point in our lives, men begin to think about financially protecting their loved ones and their future. We want to ensure that they will be provided for and have the opportunity to pursue their dreams. We want them to have hope that tomorrow will be a better day.

By building a strong financial shield including life, disability, and long-term care insurance we can bless our loved ones with financial peace and opportunity. Regardless of our age and means, every man can invest in a plan. Although there are many options to choose from, have you considered working with Knights of Columbus?

Many brothers are surprised to learn that their fraternal organization is also a Fortune 1000 company with over $100 billion of life insurance in force. With more than 1000 times the required reserves, AM Best rates the Knights of Columbus A++ (Superior), which is the highest possible rating for financial strength. Ethisphere Institute has selected the Knights as the "World's Most Ethical Company" in 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017. Because Catholic values are at its core, the Knights invest ethically and have donated more than $1.5 billion to charity in the past decade. You can trust the Knights of Columbus to help you protect what matter most.

ST. TIMOTHY CHURCH AND ST. TIMOTHY COUNCIL #14345 KofC – 2017 BLUE MASS

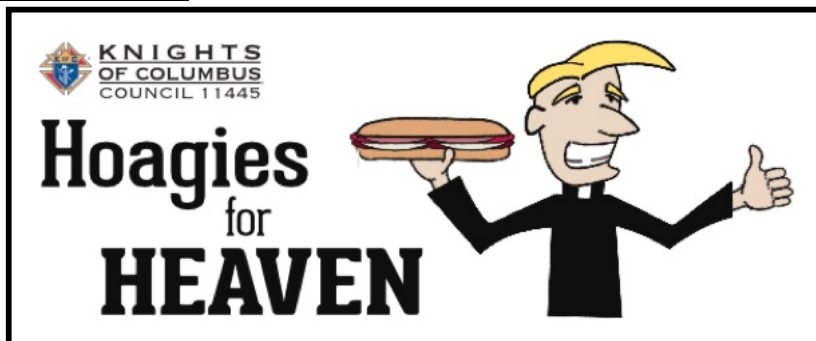

St. Timothy Church and St. Timothy Knights of Columbus Council 14345 will host The Blue Mass on Monday, September 11, 2017 at 5:00 p.m. The Blue Mass is an opportunity to honor and pray for all active, retired and deceased police, firefighters, and emergency medical services. In addition, it is an occasion to remember the 2,973 who lost their lives in the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. All active and retired police, fire, and emergency medical services in the greater Columbus area, and their families are invited. The Celebrant and Homilist for The Blue Mass will be The Most Reverend Frederick F Campbell, DD, PhD, Bishop of Columbus. Let us all join together to honor our police, firefighters, and emergency medical services, to ask for God's blessing, to keep them safe, and to guide them in their duties.

The Blue Mass dates back to 1934 in Washington, D.C. Rev. Thomas Dade from the Archdiocese of Baltimore (Maryland) initiated the Catholic Police and Firemen's Society while stationed at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Washington, D.C. About 1,100 police and firemen dressed in blue uniforms marched into St. Patrick's Catholic Church for the celebration of the First Blue Mass on September 29th, 1934. The Blue Mass has been a common tradition in the Northeast United States, but it has more recently been extended throughout the country particularly in the wake of September 11th, 2001. The Blue Mass honors and recognizes the sacrifice of police, firefighters, paramedics, emergency medical crews, all members of the public safety community and those who have given their lives in service to their communities. The name of the Blue Mass evolved from the predominantly blue-colored uniforms of police officers, firefighters and emergency personnel. Similar Blue Masses have been organized by Knights of Columbus Councils nationwide. St. Timothy Knights of Columbus Council 14345 is pleased to bring the tradition of the Blue Mass to the Diocese of Columbus.

The poster for "THE BLUE MASS 2017" is framed in blue. At the top, the title "THE BLUE MASS" is in large, bold, blue letters, with "2017" below it. The date and time "Monday, September 11th at 5:00 pm." are also in blue. Below this, the celebrant and homilist is identified as "BISHOP FREDERICK F. CAMPBELL, DD, PhD" in black text. The location is "St. Timothy Church, 1088 Thomas Lane, Columbus, OH 43220". The bottom half of the poster features a photograph of a marching band in white uniforms with black accents, marching in front of a brick building. A red quote at the bottom reads: "To honor our police, firefighters and emergency medical services, to ask for God's blessing, to keep them safe and to guide them in their duties." The entire poster is enclosed in a blue border.

HOAGIE SALE FOR VOCATIONS – OCTOBER 28-29

This year our fall vocations fundraiser will be a hoagie sale. A kickoff meeting was held on July 24th to discuss ideas, and we had 9 Knights in attendance. We will be selling Italian hoagies on 7” ciabatta buns, with capicola, genoa salami, pepperoni, and provolone cheese. We’ll make a roasted red pepper pesto which will be included in a condiment cup.

We will start taking orders the weekend of October 7-8 after Mass in Marian Hall and continue taking orders on the weekends of October 14-15 and October 21-22. Samples will be available after Masses on the weekend of October 14-15. Distribution of the hoagies will be on the weekend of October 28-29. Pricing has yet to be finalized, but current estimate is $6-7 each.

At least two Knights will be needed at every weekend Mass in October to help take orders, we will need 20-24 Knights on the morning of October 28th to help assemble the hoagies, and we will need at least 4 Knights after every Mass on the 28th and 29th to fulfill orders. Online signup for volunteer opportunities will be starting soon. Please contact Mike LaMorte for more information or to volunteer.
