GIFTS (Presented by our lecturer at our December Meeting)

For years, the commercialization and secularization of Christmas has expanded at an ever-increasing rate. From companies that try to compete for this year's "must have" gift to retailers putting out more and more Christmas merchandise earlier and earlier, there is no doubt that Christmas has become about all the wrong things.

As very young kids we don't even grasp the concept of gifts. We just know that we rip open some colorful paper, and inside is a new toy to play with. A few years go by, and the success of advertising campaigns and peer pressure makes us start to want. First little things, then bigger things and much more specific. In the teenage years the appetite for big, wonderful Christmas gifts can become insatiable. Fast forward a few decades and we find ourselves possessing pretty much every material thing we need or want. People ask us for gift ideas and we struggle to come up with them. The things we need or want can no longer be wrapped up in colorful paper with a ribbon and a bow, and they can't even be given as gifts. We need more time in the day. We want a clone of ourselves so we can get done everything that needs done and be two places at once. We need better health, want more time with our kids, and need a better night's sleep (or just more of it.)

And of course, we've all been in a gift exchange where we receive a gift that we don't exactly want or have a use for. We put on our best smile, thank the giver and tell them how great the gift is, and when we get home we put it in the back of a drawer or closet, still in its box, to be left unopened. It's usually hard to part with these things. After all, it was a gift. It cost someone else money. They did put thought into it. You can't just throw it away. So years go by and the gift is still sitting there in an unopened box, unused and forgotten.

This isn't to say that all gifts are useless junk, mere products of rampant consumerism. We all have some gifts that we truly adore, ones that we use all the time, ones that always remind us of the giver and the thought that went into the gift. Sometimes, however, it's not immediately apparent how valuable they truly are. Sometimes these gifts are stuffed away in the back of your sock drawer for years until you rediscover them and open the box, only to finally appreciate the true treasure you have received.

At baptism, we receive the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit. For most Catholics who were baptized as an infant, those gifts are initially left in their box. Our parents and Godparents have a duty and obligation to help us unwrap and use those gifts as we mature, and when we receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, those gifts are strengthened. But all too often, those precious treasures are relegated to the box they came in, pushed to the back of the sock drawer with a new wallet and a Popiel Pocket Fisherman, still in their boxes.

God has selected these seven gifts for us, and Jesus brought those gifts to all of us, so that we may more perfectly live our lives and draw ourselves closer to our Creator. These gifts are a set of keys to a priceless fortune, set aside for each of us in Heaven. Are you still keeping them in their box?

Are you using the Wisdom God gave you to illuminate your mind and allow yourself to be attracted to the Divine? Are you using the Knowledge God gave you to see things from His perspective, to know what to believe and how to share it with others? Are you allowing Understanding to enlighten your mind to the mysteries and truths of our faith? Are you listening to His Counsel, so that you may judge promptly and righteously, especially in difficult situations? Are you filled with Fortitude of the mind so that you may endure evil and do good, even when under duress? Do you recognize that you are totally reliant upon God your Eternal Father, and come before Him with humility, trust, love, devotion, and honor, as all Pious people do? And do you have Fear of the Lord in your heart? Do you think of Him with wonder and awe, and view sin like a child's fear of letting down his father?

These Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit — Wisdom, Knowledge, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Piety, and Fear of the Lord — are in each one of us. God doesn't want us to leave them in their box. He put great thought into these gifts, and they are true treasure. If you haven't opened them yet, or if you put them away and forgot about them, go find where you put them. Open the box.

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Brothers,

I want to start by wishing you and your families a healthy, peaceful and a blessed New Year! The beginning of January marks the start of the new calendar year and the half-way point of the Knights of Columbus fraternal year. We have had, I think, a great first half of the Columbian year! Thank you Knights and Ladies who have helped run and volunteer so many excellent service programs — they helped our church, our community, families, and youth. I ask you all to continue the great work this year. At this time of the year, please also take a moment from your busy daily work and social life to remember and pray for our deceased brother knights and members of their families who have passed away during the past 12 months and for our brother knights who are in need of our prayers.

May God bless you and your families with all graces needed throughout this new year!

Fraternally Yours,

Greg Eckert, Grand Knight, 614-799-9777(h), 614-313-1624(c), eckerts@outlook.com

CLERGY APPRECIATION DINNER – VILLA MILLANO, SUNDAY, JANUARY 21, 2018, 6-9 PM

The Knights of Columbus Councils throughout the Diocese of Columbus are sponsoring the 19th Annual Clergy Appreciation Dinner. It will be held on Sunday, January 21, 2018 at the Villa Millano Banquet and Conference Center, 1630 Schrock Rd., on the North side of Columbus. There will be a social hour and cash bar beginning at 6pm, with dinner at 7pm, followed by a short program. The event should be over by 9pm.

This event is an opportunity for Knights to express appreciation and support for our Priests, Deacons and Religious. Our Council is inviting our Parish Clergy and Religious (Priests, Deacons, Nuns) and several seminarians as our guests. 4th Degree Knights are encouraged to wear tux and social baldric. We expect about 30 people to attend from St. Michael's this year, including almost all of our priests, deacons and nuns.

Dinner is $35.00 per person. Our council had to submit payment to the State Council Organizing Committee in late December for all those who made reservations to attend this event. Anyone who has not yet paid for their Reservations should submit payment to Greg Eckert as soon as possible before the event. Make your check payable to Knights of Columbus #11445. I can be reached at 3086 Brookdown Drive, Columbus, OH 43235.

INSURANCE CHECK-UP FOR 2018

Where did 2017 go? It seems like it was summer yesterday and Easter was last week. I hope you and your family are having a great finish to 2017. Now, the first quarter of 2018 is about to speed by.

Hopefully, you've established a few goals for this coming year. I've learned a great tip regarding resolutions. First, write them down. It's not too late if you haven't already done this. Commit your goals to paper and post it someplace you will see it often. Writing down a goal is the first step towards achieving it. I don't know exactly how this works, but I've heard stories of the success this simple task can bring. Whether your goal is to exercise more, give more to charity, read more or watch less television, you're more likely to accomplish it if you write it down.

Second, resolve to have an expert look at your finances. I recommend that you have a team of experts help you, and I should be among the first you sit with. Schedule some time to visit with me, your professional Knights of Columbus insurance agent, and I'll provide an "insurance check-up" (at no cost!) that will quickly identify any gaps in your family's life insurance program. And you'll want to fill those gaps now, not later. Unlike many other products, you don't just need money to obtain life insurance; you also need good health, and no one knows when your health could change.

Did I mention my check-up is free of charge? When was the last time you received something for free that could be providing value to you and your family for generations? Call me today.

FINANCIAL SECRETARY CORNER

Invoices for 2018 Dues and Culture of Life Assessment should have arrived in your U.S. mailboxes by now, along with a form to be completed for the 2017 Annual Fraternal Survey. This form is also included on page 7 of This Newsletter along with instructions for its completion.

We now have 230 plus members, and I ask you to be considerate of your Brother Knights, and realize that you can help significantly by paying your dues promptly on the initial billing. Two things you can do to really help are:

First, pay your dues promptly. Preferably in full, but if you can't make the full payment, submit a partial payment. I'm happy to take as little as $5.00 per month.

Second, please do not leave us guessing in the dark! If you are unable to pay at all, or you wish to Withdraw, please respond and explain the circumstances. When we have the circumstances, we can present them to the Trustees, and we have in the past granted complete waivers or temporary waivers of the dues. However, if we hear nothing from you, we cannot help! As for Withdrawal, please note that I as the Financial Secretary cannot initiate a Withdrawal Request. Withdrawals must be initiated by you via a personal letter to Supreme. If you indicate to me that you wish to withdraw, I will send you a sample letter and stop requesting your dues payment, however, you must submit the letter. If you do not submit the letter, you remain an active member, and will now have dues in arrears, and if not paid, will have to be processed for suspension.

Know that for every active member on our rolls, whether you have paid your dues to us or not, we are taxed about $18.00 by Supreme, the State, and the Greater Columbus Chapter.

We want to keep you as Active Members in Good Standing with our Council. This means being paid up fully in your dues and assessments, or communicating with us so that we know your situation and can work with you to keep you in Good Standing.

Thanks for your help and may you and your family have a Healthy and Happy New Year.

LENTEN FISH FRY VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Brother Knights,

Our Lenten Fish Fry is quickly approaching. Our first fish fry dinner is scheduled for Friday, February 16. This will be our 21st consecutive year of hosting this event on all Fridays in Lent (except Good Friday). Each dinner runs from 5-8 PM and much help is needed in the planning and execution of each dinner.

We have a few people committed to various roles of the Fish Fry, but we still need more people to staff this event. If you are able to help please contact Chris Fricke (at the phone number or email address listed below) to volunteer.

This is an excellent family activity which offers you an opportunity to work side by side with your middle school and high school age children. It also provides your children an opportunity to earn service credits for Confirmation or other service requirements.

All new brother Knights: this is an excellent opportunity to support your council and to get to know your fellow brother Knights.
