FULL OF THE SPIRIT (Presented by our lecturer at our January Meeting)

One day a politician was invited to address a major gathering of the American Indian Nations. The politician spoke for almost an hour on his ideas and policies, and especially what he would do to for Native Americans. At the conclusion of his speech, the tribes presented the politician with a plaque inscribed with his new Indian name: Walking Eagle. He left, proudly holding the plaque in the air and waving to the press pool. After he was gone, a news reporter later asked the chiefs how they came to select the new name given to the politician. They explained that Walking Eagle is the name given to a bird so full of malarkey, it can no longer fly.

Seeking the approval of other people is truly part of our human nature. We don't want to let other people down, make them mad at us, or let them think that we're not capable in some way. How much energy do we spend on a daily basis trying to make other people happy with us? How hard do we try to make ourselves happy with ourselves? How many times a day do we grit our teeth and put on a plastic smile, then do or say something that we don't want to do or don't believe in, just to win the approval of someone else? For just about everyone, the answer is: "More than I can count." We all do it to some degree or another. We all have times where we sacrifice what we believe and know to be right for the approval of someone else. But when you think about these times, even after you have that other person's approval, do you feel filled inside? Or do you feel empty?

As the saying goes, nature abhors a vacuum. The more empty you are inside, the more you will seek to fill that emptiness, and the more we will be tempted to fill that emptiness with the temporary pleasures of this world. "I feel empty inside, so I'll fill it with food." "I feel empty inside, so I'll fill it with money." "I feel empty inside, so I'll fill it with pornography." "I feel empty inside, so I'll fill it with climbing the corporate ladder." Or maybe rather than a temporary pleasure, we'll fill that emptiness with anger that we will unleash on those around us.

Fortunately for us, Jesus Christ showed us the path we need to follow. Jesus, who was both fully man and fully God, certainly had human ambitions before the beginning of His ministry. When He began His ministry, we know that His neighbors in Nazareth said "Is not this the carpenter", which leads one to surmise that they knew Him by His occupation. Being fully man, He certainly had human aspirations. Of course He knew of His divinity, but for a time, He was Jesus, son of Joseph, a carpenter. Until He started His ministry, He didn't know what to do with His Divinity. Then as St. Paul tells us in Philippians 2, Jesus "emptied himself, taking the form of a servant". When He allowed Himself to be filled with the Holy Spirit, He left his human aspirations behind. This is the path we need to follow. Not the path of trying to appease our friends. Not the path of trying to gain the approval of our coworkers. Not the path of seeking the validation of our wives or even our parents. And it's not the path of following our own desires. No, the path we must follow is one of emptying ourselves of all these things so that we may be filled with the Holy Spirit. We must surrender ourselves to God's Will and His plan.

Of course, this is not an easy thing to do. It is hard to put aside your hopes and dreams and do what God wants. It is hard to stop seeking the approval of friends and family. And when we decide to do this, the moment we first create an emptiness within by removing those temporary things that we're accustomed to relying on to fill that emptiness, Satan will tempt us more, because he knows he is losing his grip on us. But we must do this. We must empty ourselves and allow that emptiness to be filled with the Spirit, to resolve to do God's work, to be His servant, to submit to His will. It is difficult, yes, but we were created in our mother's wombs to do the Father's work, for it is only His approval that will fill us for eternity. We must be the leaders of our families, the examples to all around us. We must choose to stop being Walking Eagles and choose to start being Soaring Eagles... the men who others look at and say, "Look at how he flies. He must truly be full of the Spirit."

NOMINATIONS FOR AWARDS OF THE YEAR

We are soliciting nominations for various Awards Of The Year for our council. Our council winners will be submitted to the Greater Columbus Chapter and State Council for consideration for awards at the Chapter, Diocese, and State level. Please submit your nominations to the appropriate committee director by March 1 to give them time to select a council winner and prepare the nomination to be sent from the council to our Chapter and State Council.

The Awards Of The Year (with Committee name and Committee Director) are for:

Blue Coat (Community, Jim Shough)

Chaplain (Church, Bob Tatz)

Family (Family, Jeff Pillivant)

Knight (Council, Tony Schera)

Lady (Family, Jeff Pilliant)

Religious (Church, Bob Tatz)

Volunteer (Community, Jim Shough)

Youth (Youth, Fidel Pitones)

The nominations should include the name of the nominee, their church activities, K of C activities (or school activities for the Youth Of The Year), community activities, and reasons for nomination. Supporting information for years of service rather than just the current year will be beneficial.

In most cases the nominee needs to be a member of the council or have an association to the council. Nominees for Blue Coat Of The Year need not be a member of the council. People to consider for this award are emergency personnel (local police, sheriff or fire departments, volunteer fire departments or the Ohio State Highway Patrol). Volunteer Of The Year does not have to be a member of the council. Lady Of The Year should be a wife or daughter of a council member. Youth Of The Year should be a member of our parish or student at St. Michael School. Although there is no requirement that Chaplain Of The Year or Religious Of The Year come from our parish, we have many eligible people at our parish and I encourage you to keep your nominations restricted to priests and religious at St. Michael.

If you wish to nominate anyone for these awards, please submit them to the appropriate Committee Director, as listed above, by March 1.

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Brothers,

The Lenten Fish Fry is upon us starting March 3rd. I am maintaining an optimistic outlook that all members will lend a hand during the 6 fish fry's. It is the biggest fund raiser we have all year and we rely on the proceeds to support all the wonderful causes we have. I know we can all come up with reasons we aren't able to volunteer but please approach it with a joyful heart and add it to your Lenten experience, in that we actually are called to sacrifice during this Blessed liturgical season. I personally find much gratification and truly enjoy spending time with my Brother Knights and their families. I want to make this an event where all my Brothers and their families can be a part of something great and come together as one Fraternal organization where we meet other Knights and their families and help many wonderful causes with the money we raise. Please sign up when Chris Fricke, the Fish Fry Chairman, solicits for volunteers, and volunteer for as many weeks as you can. Challenge yourself to volunteer for every one! You will feel good about your participation in so many ways. This is the event where we need ALL Knights pitching in. There are many positions and jobs needing help. The more volunteers we get, the fewer hours we all have to work. I want to thank you all in advance for all you do throughout the year and for volunteering during the upcoming Lenten Fish Fry.

MARCH FOR LIFE – WASHINGTON, D.C., JANUARY 27, 2017

On January 25, 60 members of St. Michael Parish and School loaded two charter buses and drove to Washington D.C. to attend the March for Life. The trip included a few extra days of touring and exploring the wider reality of the Catholic world through visits to places like The Holocaust Museum, The John Paul II National Shrine, and the National Basilica of the Immaculate Conception. This trip was a great time of grace for our parish and school. As representatives of the 8th grade class we (Jordan Graf, Brian Huber, and Avery Jourdan) would like to share some testimonies about what an impact it had on us.

“For me being Catholic was going to Mass on Sundays. It was the same words, being mindlessly spoken before meals. Until the March for Life. When I went on the March I realized I was wrong. When we went to the rally, all I saw, all I heard was the Children of God. And when we were standing on the stairs of the Lincoln Memorial, singing our hearts out to the Lord, looking out at the Washington Monument watching the stunning sunset, that’s when I realized God is with us. Not only at Mass, or in the sacraments, but always. This is His earth and we are His creation. So, to be Catholic means to be a believer of the faith. To have the faith, to practice the faith. And after the March itself, being Catholic means to act upon your faith. I have to show that I am Pro-Life, and stand up for the babies. We all need to stand up for being Pro-Life. Because after all, these babies are God’s creation too.” (Jordan Graf)

“After the March for Life, being Catholic and being Pro-Life means so much more to me. I feel that I am not alone. I am a part of something great and I have so many behind me to support me in life. I feel more motivated to stick up for the defenseless. After the March, I feel being Catholic is more than doing the motions and praying, rather, it is the definition of our life that inflames our very actions for the good of all humans. I saw this not only in me, but my fellow peers. To me, being Pro-Life is being a witness to Christ’s mission for us to love all, protect all, and value human dignity. The Holy Spirit was truly present in guiding all of us in practicing the virtues like patience, charity, and courtesy as shown in our chants, singing, marching, traveling, waiting, helping and discussing. Being Catholic and Pro-Life isn’t just some irrelevant topic in our lives or another thing on the ‘to-do’ list. It is the core of who we are and who we are to become. So I ask you, ‘What does being a Pro-Life Catholic mean to you?’” (Brian Huber)

After returning to our home here in Columbus, OH, it is our belief that we can make a difference. At the March, with so many thousands of people, we made a difference. We showed bystanders what true joy and true witness to Christ looks like. We showed people what we stand for. It was a time for us to experience how Catholics are like one big family. We are all so welcoming to one another. When we arrived at the March for Life we were not expecting such a large crowd. It was amazing! We all came to do the same thing and we did it as one. It made us feel so special to be a part of that family. The faith was very strong. We all had faith that life would win. “Our generation will end abortion!” Everyone there was so determined and ready. We were all connected through God’s love and mercy. We are very blessed to be a part of the Catholic family, a family connected through faith, hope, love friendship, God’s mercy and grace, and justice. All of those things made a family. Our Catholic family. St. Michael is Catholic! St. Michael is Pro-Life! (Avery Jourdan)

LENTEN FISH FRY BEGINS –VOLUNTEERS STILL NEEDED

Brother Knights,

Our Lenten Fish Fry is quickly approaching. Our first fish fry dinner is scheduled for Friday, March 3. This will be our 20th consecutive year of hosting this event on all Fridays in Lent (except Good Friday). Each dinner runs from 5-8 PM and much help is needed in the planning and execution of each dinner.

We have a few people committed to various roles of the Fish Fry, but we still need more people to staff this event. If you are able to help please contact Chris Fricke (at the phone number or email address listed below) to volunteer.

This is an excellent family activity which offers you an opportunity to work side by side with your middle school and high school age children. It also provides your children an opportunity to earn service credits for Confirmation or other service requirements.

All new brother Knights: this is an excellent opportunity to support your council and to get to know your fellow brother Knights.

A PERSPECTIVE ON THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE 1ST, 2ND AND 3RD DEGREES IN THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The 1st, 2nd and 3rd degrees in the Knights of Columbus can be looked upon like three of the first sacraments we all receive as Catholics. In other words, the 1st degree can be looked upon like Baptism, the 2nd degree like First Communion, and the 3rd degree like Confirmation.

From this perspective a 1st degree knight is like a Catholic who has been baptized but hasn't yet received the sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation. Would you consider yourself to be a practical Catholic in that situation? THINK ABOUT THAT IF YOU ARE A FIRST DEGREE KNIGHT.

Sunday, February 26 is the date for the next 2nd & 3rd degree ceremonies. If you are one of the first degree knights listed below, see the Membership Activities Page on page 7 of this newsletter for details of how to participate in the 2nd and 3rd degree ceremonies on February 26.
